Deaths and Funerals.

Mr. William H. Cookson died yesterday morning at his home at New Alexandria, south of this city. He was sixty-six years of age, and is survived by a daughter. Mr. Cookson was a native of Homesdale, Pa., and during the civil war served in the federal army. The funeral will take place tomorrow

Mrs. Addie Drowns, wife of Mr.

Monroe died yesterday afternoon at its parents' residence, northwest corner of St. Asaph and Gibbon streets. The funeral of Mrs. Marian Pollard, who died last Saturday afternoon, will take place at 5 o'clock this afternoon, from the residence of her son, Mr. Frank J. Pollard. Rev. J. P. Stump, of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, will officiate, and the interment will be in the Methodist Protestant cemetery. The pallbearers will be Messrs, C. G. Len-non, C. M. Lennon, J. P. Hussey, T. A. Hulfish, F. D. Pollard and W. T.

The funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth Monroe, who died Friday afternoon, took place at 10 o'clock this morning from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. R. L. Garrett, 508 north Washington street. Rev. J. P. Stamp, of the M. E. Church cell and requested Lieutenant Smith, who was alone at the station, to let him out for a moment. This the Lieutenant did, and afterward the negro refused to return to the cell. The lieutenant tried to induce the man to go back peacefully. He, however, made a lunge at the officer with a large iron ball, which was chined to his leg with a long chain. The lieutenant dodged the ball. The lieutenant let the prisoner get to the street as the corridor is so narrow that is a bad place for a tussle. When the negro got to the street the lieutenant followed him, and with a few well-directed blows with a heavy baton partially subdued him. In the meantime Mr. Walter Newlon and other citzens came to his assistance. to the street the lieutenant followed him, and other citzens came to his assistance, and in a few minutes the obstreperous prisoner consented to go back to his cell. The lieutenant struck the negro on the head and he bled profusely. Watson came here from the country and was some time ago arrested by Policeman Travers on the charge of shooting at another negro. Before he would submit to arrest Policeman Travers was compelled to shoot at him. A white man who was charged with being drunk on the streets was fined $5 in the Police Court this morning.

Seven 1.578, residents of the southeastern part of the city, were before Mayor Simpson this morning on complaint of a resident of south Fairfax street, who charged them with partially demolishing his orchard by pulling green pears, damaging the trees and treading down the flowers in the garden. The Mayor, after listening to the testimony, dismissed the accused with the admonition that were they guilty of a repetition of such acts he would impose the penalty prescribed by law. He further said that it was his purpose to protect tax-payers and put a stop to the predatory acts of the conductor are saided to the conductor are stoped to the predatory acts of the conductor to the conductor and put a stop to the predatory acts of the conductor are saided to the predatory acts of the conductor and put a stop to the predatory acts of the conductor and put a stop to the predatory acts of the conductor and put a stop to the predatory acts of the conductor and put a stop to the predatory acts of the conductor and put a stop to the predatory acts of the conductor and put a stop to the predatory acts of the conductor and put a stop to the predatory acts of the conductor and put a stop to the predatory acts of the conductor and put a stop to the predatory acts of the conductor and put a stop to the predatory acts of the conductor and put a stop to the predatory acts of the conductor and put a stop to the predatory acts of the conductor and put a stop to the predatory acts of the conductor and put a stop to the predatory acts of the conductor and put a stop to the predatory acts of the conductor and put a stop to the predatory acts of the condu and put a stop to the predatory acts of boys whose wont it is to deface property and annoy other people. #### Homer to be Held

Company L, 70th Virginia regiment, of Fredericksburg, which was ordered by Governor Montague to come to this city and take charge of the negro, John Homer, charged with criminally assaulting Misa Susie Costenbader, in Westmoreland county about a month ago, arrived here today about one o'clock and parched at once to Armory Hall where marched at once to Armory Hall where they were quartered. Capt. M. B. Rowe was in command and had about 50 men under him. This action was deemed necessary by the Governor on account of the bitter feeling against the negro and the soldiers are to protect him during the trial and after the verdict has been pronounced. Homer, or Lomax as he is called by the Westmoreland people, was to have been taken to the steamer Harry Randall and, guarded by the soldiers, would have left here about half-past four this evening for Montross where he is to be placed on trial. trial. Accident to a Steamer.

Several freight cars were turned over and one thrown down a bank in the Southern Bailway yard this morning. A string of cars was standing on a track in the southern part of the yard, when an outgoing train passed and, in rail-toad parlance, "sidewiped" them. Fortunately no one was hurt, and the derailed cars were soon replaced on the track.

We Wish to Announce

to the people of Alexandria that since the purchase of the Alexandria Steam Bread Bakery by ourselves on June 14, 1902, we have spared no pains or expense in going over this plant and putting it in thorough condition. We now state, without fear of condradiction, that we have as UP-TO-DATE a bread bakery as exists in the United States. We are employing Alexandria bakers who are unexcelled in the art of making bread; and it will be our purpose to see that nothing is used in the manufacture of bread except the very best of all materials. In this way we expect to give to the people of Alexandria better bread than they have been G. Wm. Ramsay. getting. We ask all of our citizens who wish to encourage Alexandria enterprise to insist on the grocer giving them Alexandria Steam Bread Bakery's Bread. We guarantee the quality : : : : : : : : :
